

Press Release

Indian Institute of Materials Management confers CHEMINOR award to NPCIL

Indian Institute of Materials Management conferred CHEMINOR award to Nuclear Power Corporation of India Limited on August 14, 2010. NPCIL received this award for instituting best practices in the administration of contracts with transparency, integrated materials management and achieving substantial cost benefits and initiatives in education & Training of employees in effective materials management through structured training and performance evaluation.

Shri S. C. Goel, Executive Director (C&MM) and his team received this award on behalf of NPCIL in a function held at Indian Institute of Materials Management in Mumbai.

