

Institute of Public Enterprise confers “Corporate Vigilance Excellence Award” on NPCIL

The Institute of Public Enterprise (IPE) was established in 1964 for the study of issues and policies relating to public enterprises (PEs). The institute collects information on PEs, study issues and undertake a systematic and sustained study of issues relevant to the formulation of policies towards public enterprises. It is located in the Campus of Osmania University, Hyderabad.

The IPE has instituted a Corporate Vigilance Excellence Award from 2013-14. The award is given for the best practices adopted by the Public Enterprises for vigilance function. For the year 2015-16 NPCIL has also participated for the award. NPCIL has been declared winner in the category of Power Sector Enterprises.

Shri Prateek Goswami, Chief Vigilance Officer along with Shri V K Gupta, GM (Vigilance), Shri N S Kamath, Vigilance Officer, KGS and Mrs D. J. Pereira, Manager (HR-DC) received the award on behalf of NPCIL on February 18, 2016 at IPE Auditorium, Hyderabad. The award was presented by the Chief Guest of the function Shri S. K. Acharya, CMD, Neyveli Lignite Corporation.

Shri Prateek Goswami, CVO, NPCIL was the Guest of Honour in the inauguration Function. He also addressed the participants during inauguration. Shri V K Gupta presented the best practices followed in NPCIL for vigilance function.

CVO, NPCIL Lighting the Lamp as Guest of Honour

CVO, NPCIL Addressing the participants of the conclave